ACCREDITATION APPLICATION INFORMATION

Please note that our Accreditation process has been revised for the 2011 festival. Please read this form thoroughly and complete fully. Applications that are not fully completed will not be approved.

Media Passes will allow representatives backstage access at festival events, Media Pit access, and preferred access to the parade route and beverage gardens, subject to Pride Toronto's discretion.

Interviews:

Interviews with Pride Toronto staff, Grand Marshal, performers, etc may be scheduled by emailing media@pridetoronto.com. Interview scheduling will be dependant on availability and closed by May 30, 2011. To ensure your publication gets an interview time, contact us ASAP! No offsite interviews will be held on Parade Day, and no unscheduled interviews will be provided.

Notes:

- All Media accredited to Pride Week 2011 must provide clips of their reports by July 18, 2011. Failure to do so could effect accreditation for future events.
 - Accreditation applications must be received by June 13, 2011.
 - Media access will be determined on an individual basis.
 - Please email, post, or courier your application and attachments directly to Pride Toronto – Please do not fax.
 - Your accreditation status will be advised by email within two weeks of receipt.
 - Please inform us of any on-site requirements you may have.
 - Passes will be available during Pride Week 2011 ONLY. If you need to collect your 2011 Media Pass prior to Pride Week, please email the Media Committee directly to make arrangements for this.
 - Unauthorized media will be refused access to secure areas. Media passes are non-transferable and must be returned upon request by an authorized Pride Toronto representative.
 - Passes will only be available until 1:00pm on Sunday afternoon (Parade Day). Additional Media Passes will not be issued after this time.
